

FY 2003–2004 Budget
Fairbanks North Star Borough

APPRECIATIONS

Thank you to everyone involved in this year's budget process. Without your help and assistance this large task would not be able to be accomplished.

Particular appreciations and thanks go to the following individuals for their important roles in the preparation of this budget:

Mayor Boyles, Department Directors and their Staff for all the hard work in making the budget process as smooth as possible and taking ownership for their respective sections of the budget.

Trina Davis, for her assistance in preparing and updating department expenditure budget worksheets, preparing graphs for the budget, reconciling, assistance in changes, and updating budget schedules.

Debbie Brady, Ron Boyles, Joanne Pascoe, Susan Matchael, Liz Rosebeary, Maureen Huggins, Eileen Weis, and other Accounting staff for providing the copious amounts of data needed for preparing the budget, for computing the interfund revenues and charges, for proofing and reviewing submittals and schedules, and reviewing the "Budget by Funds" section.

Sallie Stuvek, Terri McFarland, and Eileen Weis for computing the benefit rate.

Diane Thomas for preparing salary projections.

Lenny Reagin and Karl McManus for their work on providing assessed value and exemption estimates.

Kathey Kibbee and Assessing Staff for their hard work keying and providing exemption data for setting the mill rates and preparing for the tax roll.

John Hendrie in General Services for his tireless cooperation in obtaining materials and providing consultation and assistance in working out the logistics and printing the Mayor's Recommended and Approved Budget documents.

Computer Services for their assistance in keeping directory rights to the budget updated.

Karen Williams for her untiring support and stellar preparation of the Mayor's Recommended Budget.

Bea Schafer for her invaluable assistance in all areas of the budget process.

Again, thanks to everyone involved in the budget development process, we could not have done it without you. No one can ask for better assistance. For that, we thank you.

Michael Lamb, Chief Financial Officer
Peggy Macdonald, Treasury and Budget Manager